President's Message

Dear Friends,

First of all, I want to thank all of you who attended our Culver City Reads event (Pippi Longstocking 60th Birthday Party ). The Pippi summer movie event was a great success and, like our summer reading programs of previous years, demonstrates how rewarding it is to encourage reading at an early age. I don't know what was more gratifying: seeing children becoming excited about Pippi's adventures with her pet horse and monkey, or watching adults rediscover and share the stories they had read and loved as children. This very special evening could not have happened without the support of our volunteers, Sony Entertainment Corporation, the Culver City News, and the Culver City Fire Department. Many, many thanks.

As we close out the third quarter of the year, I'm happy to announce that our fundraising is going better than ever. We are now at the point we were at the end of 2008, but there is one more book sale to go, as well as money from our online sales and ongoing book sale room to add to this year's total. Great work, everyone! Our next book sale on Saturday, November 21, will include our annual Arts & Crafts Fair in addition to our regular selection of gently used books. It's a great way to find a unique gift.

Finally, I hope to see many of you at the Friends' Ice Cream Social on Saturday, October 17 at 3:00 in the library. Besides ice cream and entertainment by the barbershop quartet "The Oceanaires," the Friends' board will be there to answer questions, take suggestions, and generally get to know our members better. If you are interested in working with us in 2010, or have any questions or ideas, please come and share them. No pressure, no hassle, I promise. Just an informal chance to figure out how we can work together to make our library an even better place than it is now.

Sincerely,
Kevin Commins

President

Volunteers Needed! The Friends of the Library is looking for some enthusiastic, and dedicated volunteers to help with various committees. Can you help? Come sign up at our ice cream social.

Publication Committee: This committee shall be responsible for preparing a newsletter to be sent out quarterly to inform the membership-at-large of the goals and accomplishments of the organization and to promote events sponsored by the organization. This committee will also be responsible for preparing promotional material, such as brochures and flyers.

Book Sale Committee: This committee shall be responsible for planning, promoting, and conducting the organization's book sales. The book sale chairperson is exempt from term limitations. Members will also assist with the organization of the permanent book sale room at the library.

Installation Dinner: This committee will work with the Program chair to determine a location, plan the program and gather, display and assist with the silent auction.

Programs: This committee will work with the program chair to develop, promote and assist with activities such as the Edible Books Festival, Holiday party, and other monthly programs.

Volunteer Coordination: This committee will work with the President to coordinate, direct and solicit volunteers for activities such as book sales, Culver City Reads, and regular programs.

Culver City Reads: This committee will assist in the selection of the book and movie for Culver City reads, with developing activities, promoting the event, and helping with activities in conjunction with the program.

Join the Executive Board: The executive board consists of officers and chairs of specific activities. Officers include: President, Vice-President, Secretary, and Treasurer. Chairs include: Membership, Publications, Programs and Book Sale. These positions are held for a one-year term. A person can only serve two consecutive terms in the same position, unless this provision is waived by a majority vote of the Executive Board.

Membership Committee: This committee shall be responsible for increasing membership in the organization and promoting participation in and support of this organization. The chairperson shall keep an accurate and up-to-date list of the members, their contact information, and their type of membership.

Storytime Committee: This committee will assist with procuring readers for story time on the first Tuesday of each month, developing craft projects and gathering materials for the story time, or assisting with the crafts during story time.

Nominations for 2010 Friend of the Library Board

Nominations for officers are sought for the 2010 year. Any individual interested in serving as an officer shall make it known to the Board by the close of the November Board meeting.

b. Only those individuals who have given their consent to serve shall be nominated for or elected to such office.

c. If more than one candidate seeks an office, either a ballot will be mailed to the membership or a vote will be taken at the annual membership meeting. The procedure will be decided by a majority vote of the Executive Board.
