Standing Reports

Treasurer John - For the year we have $7,000.

Book Sale Steve- Not much from the book sale, approximate book sale.

The handle in the bin is broken again.

Membership Sharon - We need a February book sale to have new members.

The priority of the little card has changed.

Program Chair Nancy Kuechle/Elaine Hiroshima - So far, we have 31 paid reservations, and 17 not paid.

Set up is at 4:00 for the dinner. Elaine will check people in. The books will be on display. There are a few changes in the cast. Some people will dress up as their favorite character judging audiences responses. Bookie books and tee shirts are as prizes. The actor's will eat at 6:30, they eat first. We are paying for some of the actor's.

Publication Aileen - New reader, Reginald Brunson, the principal, from El Rincon Elementary School

Librarian Report Laura - Laura announced that staff had placed all installation dinner reservation forms in the CCFOL mail box.

The library lobby is now housing an environmental kiosk from the Co. Department of Public Works as well as the state and federal tax forms. By the end of April things will get back to normal.

Staff recently expanded the picture book area by removing some shelving.

The library will soon offer the option of paying late fees by credit card.

Librarian Greg Smith is back from providing coverage at the View Park Library.

The bookplate for Zach's book Pig Kahuna was shared and the working discussed. Next year the bookplate may be in a different format because the Library Department is creating a standardize bookplate to be used at all libraries.
