

One Book, One City
Culver City- for the Centennial
Let's All Read
West of Sunset by Stewart O'Nan!

Join us this summer as we celebrate Culver City's Centennial in the Heart of Screenland by reading West of Sunset, a novel about the early days of movie making and F. Scott Fitzgerald's time working as a screenwriter at MGM studios. Author Stewart O'Nan will join us in October and a variety of activities are planned to go with this Citywide Read. Plan your reading now. Books are available through the library, or for purchase at The Ripped Bodice bookstore (3806 Main St.) and Lundeen's (9726 Washington Bl). Links to Mr. O'Nan's website and a Book Club kit are available on this website.

Watch this space for more information!