Culver City Reads 2007—Sponsorship Form

Culver City Reads is a community-wide reading fest sponsored by the Culver City Friends of the Library to promote reading, education, and literacy. This program encourages people of all ages to read the same book. After extensive community input, the book selected for this year is the highly acclaimed bestseller "Born Free: A Lioness of Two Worlds" by Joy Adamson. Throughout the next several months, the Friends will hold a series of events and activities revolving around this book to show children and adults alike how books come alive and to raise funds for the Library. The program will culminate in an "under the stars" screening of the movie Born Free at Veterans Park on August 11, 2007. The success of the program depends on financial support from businesses, civic organizations, and individuals!

There are many ways you or your organization can contribute to this community celebration, including one of many levels of sponsorship. Sponsorship can be achieved by a monetary contribution and/or a non-monetary contribution, such as a gift certificate, food for an event, or an item for a drawing or door prize. Cash and in-kind contributions may be combined to achieve these sponsorship levels. Types and benefits of sponsorship are listed on the reverse side.
